

The Shortest Shower Game!

Here's the rules: Have a buddy time your shower time using a stopwatch. Pause the stopwatch every time the water is off.

Start the timer every time the water is back on. Easy Peasy! Write down your time in minutes:seconds.millseconds under your name.

To get your daily average shower time: Add up all your time. Divide your total time by the number of days of the contest. Here's the fun part! After the restrictions are lifted, the one with the shortest daily average wins!! The winner gets to pick a fun group activity like a movie, hike, or arcade games!!
